

County offers rental and mortgage assistance

Volusia County's Community Assistance Division is offering two programs that can provide relief to families and individuals negatively impacted by the coronavirus through loss of employment. Assistance will be provided on a first-ready, first-served basis. A limited number of applications will be accepted based on funding availability.

Rental assistance

Eligible renters can apply for rental assistance for payment of late, current and, if they remain eligible, future payments. Accepted applicants may receive up to $1,500 a month for three months.

Applicants must have an active lease in their name and be able to document a loss of income as a direct result of COVID-19. Additionally, the dwelling must be in Volusia County, excluding the city limits of Daytona Beach and Deltona. Rent must have been current as of March 13, and the household income must be at or below the area median income level.

The rental application package can be found at volusia.org/C19RA. Completed applications may be submitted through the website or by mail to: Community Assistance, c/o COVID-19 Rental Assistance, 110 W. Rich Ave., DeLand, FL 32720.
