LAURA STEGALL
HEAD WOMEN’S VOLLEYBALL COACH

Laura Stegall launched Daytona State’s first volleyball season in fall 2013. Prior to her time with the Falcons, Stegall assisted at Embry-Riddle University and launched a successful NAIA volleyball program, Indiana Tech. Stegall brings elite coaching and playing experience to Daytona State. In 2005, she was inducted into the IPFW Hall of Fame where she held several records including Career Kills, Kills in a Match, and Career Digs.

Stegall is looking forward to another great Daytona State season. She is also looking forward to providing training and instruction to the area youth who aspire to grow in the game of volleyball.

LAURA BOOKER
ASSISTANT WOMEN’S VOLLEYBALL COACH

Laura Booker came to Daytona State in July 2013. Booker had the unique opportunity to play under head coach, Laura Stegall, and help launch the inaugural volleyball program at Indiana Tech. Booker was a phenomenal player and work horse for the Indiana Tech Warriors from 2005-2008. During her stint at Indiana Tech, she led the team to their first NAIA National Tournament appearance and a first place finish in the Wolverine Hoosier Athletic Conference. Booker was named a NAIA Academic All-American (2006-2008), Wolverine Hoosier Athletic First team All-Conference member (2008), All-Conference/All-National Champion of Character (2005-2008), MVP (2008), and honored as Indiana Tech’s Hyashi Student-Athlete of the Year (2008).

Booker welcomes the opportunity to share her knowledge of the game as well as provide skill specific training to young players who wish to mature in the game of volleyball.
