HEATH RISKS

AMPHETAMINES

COCAIN, CRACK

Coke use leads to increased alertness, agitation, apathy, dilated pupils, elevated heart rate and respiratory rate, increased body temperature and with olfactory use can cause stuffy and runny nose and perforated nasal septum. Depression follows use along with the strong desire to repeat usage. Crack can cause delirium, hallucinations, blurred vision, chest pain, muscle spasms, convulsions and death. These drugs are highly addictive.

OTHER AMPHETAMINES

METHAMPHETAMINE, RITALIN, SPEED, ECSTASY

Amphetamines are highly addictive and have the ability to cause euphoria, increased pulse rate and blood pressure, loss of appetite, excitation, increased body temperature, hallucinations, irrational behavior, convulsions and upon withdrawal causes long periods of sleep, irritability, depression, tremors, loss of coordination, collapse and death. Amphetamines are addictive.

HALLUCINOGENS

PEYOTE, PCP, MESCALINE

Hallucinogens produce hallucinations, panic, confusion, suspicion, anxiety, loss of control, flashbacks and an altered perception of time and distance. It produces a blocking of pain receptors and affects the center of the brain that controls intellect and keeps instincts in check. The use of hallucinogens can cause death.

MARIJUANA

Marijuana is classified as a hallucinogen. It causes euphoria, relaxed inhibitions, fatigue, paranoia, altered sense of time, reduced coordination, increased appetite and impaired comprehension and memory. The immune system of users is lowered and there is an increased risk for lung diseases. The active ingredient, THC, is stored in the fatty tissue of the brain and reproductive system for a minimum of 28-30 days.

STEROIDS

Steroids have many legitimate health benefits in the hands of medical professionals. However, abuse of these powerful drugs can cause irreversible damage to your body. Androgenic steroids, which are related to male sex hormones, are commonly abused for the purpose of gaining muscle mass and enhancing athletic performance. Well-documented research shows that the long-term health risks of taking these drugs far outweigh any athletic benefits. Health risks include testicular atrophy, reduced sperm count and increased risk of prostate cancer for men. For women, the risks include growth of facial hair, male-pattern baldness, changes in or cessation of the menstrual cycle. Liver tumors and kidney damage in both men and women have been linked to steroid use. Aggressive behavior and other psychiatric side effects have also been documented in both men and women steroid abusers.

DEPRESSANTS

VALIUM, LIBRIUM, PHENOBARBITAL, ROOFIES, QUAAUDES

Depressants slow body functioning and cause slurred speech, disorientation, drunken behavior, shallow respiration, clammy skin, dilated pupils, weak and rapid pulse, anxiety, insomnia, tremors, delirium, convulsions, coma and death. Depressants produce high to moderate levels of tolerance and addiction.

ALCOHOL

Although responsible and legal consumption of alcohol is a common social custom in America and many other countries, alcohol is also considered one of the most widely abused drugs in the world. Classified as a depressant, alcohol affects the nervous system, impairing speech, vision and other motor skills. It can impair judgment and abstract mental functioning, including the ability to learn and remember. Alcohol abuse has been associated with increased violent or aggressive acts such as spouse/child abuse, sexual assaults, vandalism and fights. Consumption of large quantities of alcohol (binge drinking) can cause fatal alcohol poisoning. Alcohol is highly addictive and its withdrawal can be life threatening. Use during pregnancy can cause permanent birth defects. Children of alcoholics are at greater risk for alcoholism. Alcohol abuse can cause permanent damage to vital organs, such as the brain and liver and has been associated with various types of cancers.
OPIATES
DEMEROL, DILAUDID, HEROIN, METHADONE, CODEINE, MORPHINE, OXYCONTIN
Opiates are narcotics, painkillers, which cause diminished perception of pain, euphoria, drowsiness, nausea, constipated pupils, reduced heart rate and depression. Narcotics are highly addictive and an overdose can result in death.

INHALANTS
PAINT, GLUE
Inhalants can cause nosebleeds, nausea, loss of consciousness and with prolonged use cause damage to the nervous system and other organs. High doses can result in loss of consciousness. The use of inhalants is psychologically addicting.

LEARNING COMMUNITIES
An alternative to traditional college classes - integrated courses with a common theme with an emphasis on collaborative teaching and learning. You can choose from a variety of Linked Classes or Daytona State College’s nationally recognized QUANTA program.

LINKED CLASSES
One of the best things about college is learning how to see the world from different perspectives. Linked classes - separate courses joined by a theme are an excellent way for you to do just that. You will work closely with other students and faculty and experience the following benefits:
- Students understand how subjects and issues are interrelated and cross subject matter boundaries.
- An academic community for students who attend commuter schools
- Students become active and responsible participants in their own education. High-level critical thinking is encouraged
- Students and faculty find intellectual interaction and connection with each other

- The exposure to diverse populations and the opportunities to explore and understand diverse perspectives are great

QUANTA - An Interdisciplinary Learning Community
QUANTA is a nationally recognized learning community where students and faculty work together to share their learning experiences. As a QUANTA student, you’ll work with three faculty members who collaborate in their teaching of sociology, cultural arts and English courses. You will participate in groups with other students to share your ideas, thereby gaining different perspectives on the topic you are studying. You’ll develop your critical thinking, reading and writing skills; group and leadership skills; and will benefit from a flexible learning environment. Through this experience, you’ll develop a greater sense of involvement with the other students and faculty. QUANTA courses satisfy general education requirements for all majors in Associate of Arts degree programs. The Florida Board of Colleges has awarded the QUANTA Learning Community recognition as one of the outstanding academic programs in higher education in Florida.

Distinctions between the AA, AAS and the AS Degrees:

- Courses taken as a part of an AA degree satisfy requirements for the first two years of a baccalaureate degree at state colleges or universities in Florida.
- The AAS and AS degrees prepare students for immediate employment in selected careers. Although not designed to transfer, students are able to continue their education toward a baccalaureate degree at Daytona State, if there is an articulation agreement between Daytona State College and another college or university they can continue toward a baccalaureate at those institutions.
- Whether an articulation agreement is in place or not, earning an AAS or AS degree does not preclude students from continuing their education. When choosing between degrees, the student should consider long-term career plans as well as immediate employment.

Certificate Programs

Each Certificate Program is designed for a different level of training:

Occupational Certificate (Vocational Credit)
These programs are designed to provide training in various fields. Training in these programs will prepare a student for an entry-level position.

College Credit Certificate and Applied Technology Diploma (College Credit)
These programs are the “first leg” toward an AAS or AS degree. A college credit certificate and applied technology diploma will provide training in various fields, preparing a student for an entry-level position. However, credits from these certificates can be applied toward credits in the Associate of Science and Associate of Applied Science degree programs.

Explanation of Academic Terms Articulation Agreement

For the AA degree: Agreement between Florida’s public junior/State colleges and universities assuring junior-level status to students who complete the college general education and graduation requirements in university parallel programs.

For the AAS or AS degree:
Agreement between a specific AAS or AS degree program and a senior university to accept graduates to the university’s upper division under certain circumstances.

Career Programs

Two-year AAS and AS degrees:
AAS and AS degree programs or one year (or less) vocational or college credit certificates with courses designed to prepare students for specialized occupations.

Credit by Examination
College credit in specified subjects granted by successful completion of local or national tests (e.g. APLE, CLEP, AP). See Assessment Services under Department Information.

Continuous Enrollment/Catalog Year
Continuing in course work without missing two major semesters (Fall and Spring Semesters are defined as major semesters); you must follow the requirements in the Daytona State College Catalog for the year that you started classes. If program requirements change, but you’ve maintained continuous enrollment, the changes DO NOT affect your graduation. However, if you have missed a year of enrollment, you must follow any new requirements. If you would like to graduate under a different catalog year, an appeal must be filed for the request with Records.
FOREIGN LANGUAGE REQUIREMENT
Florida State Law requires completion of eight hours (two semesters) of foreign language credit to receive the Associate of Arts or Bachelor degree (if you did not complete two years of the same foreign language in high school). Check with your transfer institution for language requirements. Daytona State College offers a variety of languages including French, Spanish, German, Italian, Portuguese and sign language.

Each course used to satisfy this rule must be completed with a grade of C or higher. The Gordon Rule classes are identified in the General Education requirements for the AA degree (see the College Catalog for more details).

REASONS TO STAY AT DAYTONA STATE COLLEGE AND COMPLETE THE AA DEGREE
If you complete the AA degree at Daytona State College, you have several advantages when you transfer to a state university in Florida:
- You do not need to take a university admissions test or submit SAT or ACT scores (Education majors, however, must submit SAT or ACT scores).
- You do not need to take additional course work to enter the university at the junior level.
- You do not need to meet the university general education requirements or take any additional general education courses.

OTHER ADVANTAGES OF GRADUATING FROM DAYTONA STATE COLLEGE
- You save money if you live at home and do not pay university housing fees.
- You become eligible for college scholarship money offered by the universities when you transfer with the AA degree. (More than $1 million through the state universities.)
- Your tuition cost is lower at Daytona State College.
- You get to know your professors and they get to know you because class size at the College averages 23 students per class. (Very few classes have more than 35 students.)
- You are more likely to have a higher grade point average if you begin your college education at Daytona State. (Our graduates do better than students who begin as freshmen at the universities because you are better prepared due to smaller class sizes and more personalized attention.)
- You can take advantage of college preparatory courses designed to improve your reading, writing or math skills.
- You can take advantage of agreements between Daytona State College and private colleges and universities that allow you to transfer with the AA degree, enter as a junior and not lose credits. Additionally, many private institutions (Stetson University and Bethune-Cookman University, for example) offer special scholarships to Daytona State College graduates.
- You can begin your major at Daytona State College. If you plan to go into law, education, science, medicine, psychology, business or some other career, you can take the same course that students at universities take. We will work with you to help you decide on a major and plan your academic career.

AAS AND AS DEGREE ADVANTAGES
- The average monthly income of a worker with an associate degree (two-year) is almost double that of a high school graduate.
- In many technical fields, AAS and AS degree graduates often earn more than many workers who hold a bachelor’s degree.
- AAS and AS degrees enable students to move directly into the workforce.
- A student may be able to enter a field in which employers offer tuition reimbursement for job improvement or continuing education. Students can continue their education and earn advanced degrees, although the paths may be different than those taken by AA graduates.

PREPARING TO TRANSFER

Follow these tips and you should be well prepared to work toward your baccalaureate degree. Remember that Daytona State College also offers Bachelor degrees, which will make your transition to upper division classes even smoother.

• Obtain a catalog from the university to which you plan to transfer.
• Visit the Career Placement Center on the campus nearest you to clarify your career goals or to gather information.
• Online college/university transfer information is available in the Career Placement Center to help you find which schools offer what majors, admission requirements, as well as information on financial aid, and scholarships.
• Colleges and universities may have both an admission and graduation foreign language requirement. These may vary by university and even among degrees within the different colleges at the same university.
• Submit your application for other state or private universities as EARLY as six to nine months in advance. Many universities recommend one year in advance.
• State university applications are available online. Print applications can be found in the Career Placement Center and Academic Advising.

You do not have to wait to complete your AA degree to start your application for transfer.

• You must submit an application for graduation at Daytona State College in the Q & A Office. You will not be awarded your associate degree if an application is not submitted by the deadline date.

REMEMBER: The AAS and AS degrees will transfer to Daytona State College's Bachelor of Applied Science and Bachelor of Science in Engineering Technology degrees.

There may be some programs, such as Nursing, which are eligible for transfer to other state universities (as well as Daytona State). If the program you are interested in is one of these designated programs, follow these same steps.

Florida’s state universities provide an easy-to-use publication called a Transfer Student Counseling Manual. This lists requirements for all of the majors the school offers into two areas:

• Courses to be completed at the community college
• Courses to be completed at the university

Transfer manuals also provide students with important information like department names, contact people for your major, phone numbers for the department and a listing of any other important details regarding any program of interest. (e.g. limited access details, GPA requirements, volunteer hours required, minimum grade requirements, etc.). If you are interested in a private Florida school or other public and private institutions across the nation, you should visit the Career Placement Center at the campus most convenient to you to search through your best choices and explore catalogs via the Internet.
