BUILDING A STRONGER COMMUNITY

“Daytona State College is one of the key components of sustainable economic development for our community. They guide and educate sons, daughters, neighbors, parents and friends to be future police officers, doctors, artists, lawyers, entrepreneurs, firefighters, chefs, nurses, teachers, scientists, and public servants.”

Josh Wagner
1997 Graduate, Attorney, County Councilman

Daytona State College assures equal opportunity in employment and education services to all individuals without regard to race, sex, color, age, religion, disability, national origin, political affiliation or belief, or marital status.
