One-on-One Tutoring

Consultations help writers achieve their goals for any type of writing at any stage of the process. During consultations, writers may receive assistance decoding assignments, brainstorming ideas, outlining, drafting, revising, and formatting. Appointments last up to 45 minutes, and are available to DSC students as well as DSC alumni, staff, and faculty.

Virtual Tutoring

Virtual tutoring resembles our one-on-one consultations. A Writing Specialist will consult with a writer using web-conferencing software in a 45-minute appointment. Students who are in hybrid or online classes, as well as those who have limited access to our Writing Center locations, can access this service.

Online Embedding

The Writing Center chat can be embedded in a course shell where students can pose quick-help questions and schedule appointments. Writing Center staff respond with advice and suggestions for helpful, relevant resources. Embedding this feature in a course helps students become familiar with the resources available at DSC.

In-Class Intros

A representative of the Writing Center will attend any course section to outline the services offered and answer any student questions. Check our website for details.

Content-Specific Workshops

Writing Specialists will work with you to create specialized content for your classes to address both general and specific topics, ranging from formatting and rhetorical awareness to résumé writing and literary analysis. Please notify the Writing Center in advance so the workshop presenter can tailor content accordingly, and visit our website for workshop ideas.

Reservable Space

Our Writing Center (including regional campus locations) offers student use computers and study areas. Additionally, our Attic space is a reconfigurable learning space for classes, meetings, presentations, workshops, and exploration.

daytonastate.edu/CWC

To inquire about any of our services, email CWC@daytonastate.edu or call (386) 506-3297
Writing Fellows

The Writing Center can help turn one of your exemplary students into a Writing Fellow, a peer tutor who is embedded in your class to offer additional peer-writing support to your students in and outside of class. The fellow will have already performed well in the course, and will benefit from Writing Center practice during the semester he or she is working with you.

Test Prep

The Writing Center offers individual, 45-minute appointments for students seeking help with any test prep for reading, writing, and language and communication skills. Whether it’s for the GKT, TEAS, or TABE, students may schedule up to three appointments each week. Students’ individual strengths and weaknesses are examined and a study plan is devised. Since sessions are tailored to the individual needs of the learner, they may cover multiple content areas in one session.

Faculty in Residence: Student Support Goal Opportunity

Fulfill your annual Student Support Goal through on-site collaboration with full-time professional writing center staff, writing specialists, and peer tutors. Have an idea for developing an activity or resource to support your teaching? Just looking for some inspiration? Learn how the Writing Center can support you and your students. As part of your weekly residency, you will work to develop an activity or resource you can share with students and colleagues.

Writing Center Website & Social Media

The Writing Center’s website provides information pertaining to the Center, including the hours and contact information for each location. The site also makes our workshops and handouts readily accessible to students, alumni, faculty, and staff. Visit the ‘Faculty Resources’ and ‘WAC/WID’ tabs for professional development and collaborative classroom opportunities. The Writing Center is also active on social media platforms (Instagram, Facebook, YouTube, and Twitter) to share information about DSC and relevant writing resources.

Student Employment

For any student who demonstrates excellent writing and communication skills in any course, we strongly encourage faculty recommendations and referrals for student employment at the DSC Writing Center. Check out our website for details.