Daytona State College Hurricane Dorian Update #4

Daytona Beach, Fla. (Sept. 4, 2019) – DSC officials have assessed the status of all campuses and are reporting no significant damage from Hurricane Dorian. The College will reopen Friday morning, September 6, for business as usual with all scheduled classes and activities, including online classes. Essential facilities personnel and campus safety staff will be contacted by their supervisors to report to work Thursday.

Students, please note that faculty will be flexible if you evacuated and you won't be impacted academically for putting your personal safety first. Please check your Falcon Mail and contact your individual instructors if you have specific questions regarding rescheduled assignments.

To provide timely and consistent information, DSC will post to the DSC website (https://www.daytonastate.edu/campus\_safety/timely-warnings.html) as well as DSC Text Alerts, Falcon Online and official DSC social media.
